The Architecture Symposium: How new is Now? – Session 1

16 March 2021

1 Formal CPD Point

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Participants who attend The Architecture Symposium: How new is now? – Session 1 will be able to:

· Question how architects can respond to today's concurrent crises in ways that prioritize sustainability and resilience.
AACA Competency: Design, Project Briefing 1.4; Conceptual Design 3.3; Schematic Design 4.2

· Understand how architecture and the built environment is shaped by – and helps shape – inequality and other forms of economic and social injustice.
AACA Competency: Design, Conceptual Design 3.1; Schematic Design 4.2; Project Delivery, Construction Stage 8.9

· Recall specific lessons from architects using architectural thinking across varied disciplines.
AACA Competency: Design, Project Briefing 1.5; Schematic design 4.4

FORMAL ASSESSMENT

· What did the projects presented reveal about the way architects can work towards a more sustainable future?

· Describe the ways in which an interdisciplinary approach can offer new ways to solve complex problems.

· How do you see the COVID-19 pandemic and other crises influencing the delivery of architecture in the Asia Pacific?

· Describe the impact that the material raised in this session will have on your workplace and the future practise of architecture in Australia and the Asia Pacific.

· Identify a specific presentation that challenged you to think differently about contemporary architecture in the Asia Pacific.

· Were there are any issues raised that you feel require further discussion or exploration?

NOTE:
Following completion of the symposium and when your attendance is verified by the platform's analytics, you will be emailed your attendance certificate(s). This is not an automated process, so please allow time for these to be issued. For delegates who will be viewing sessions on demand, after the live dates, certificates will not be issued until after 4 May 2021.
