LEARNING OUTCOMES

Participants who attend The Architecture Symposium: How new is now? – Session 3 will be able to:

- Describe the way architects are interrogating notions of the “urban” to deliver different kinds of projects.

AACA Competency: Design, Pre Design 2.1; Schematic Design 4.3; Detailed Design 5.1

- Consider how transportation (and other) infrastructure shapes a city and its architecture.

AACA Competency: Design, Conceptual Design 3.3, 3.6

- Understand academic discussions around new forms of urbanism and consider their implications for the Asia Pacific.

AACA Competency: Conceptual Design 3.1; Design, Schematic Design 4.5

FORMAL ASSESSMENT

- Discuss how rapid urbanization challenges architects to think differently about the city.
- Describe some specific considerations that go into designing transport infrastructure today.
- What are the challenges of working in a rural context?
- Describe the impact that the material raised in this session will have on your workplace and the future practise of architecture in the Asia Pacific.
- Identify a specific presentation that challenged you to think differently about contemporary Australian architecture.
- Were there any issues raised that you feel require further discussion or exploration?

NOTE:

Following completion of the symposium and when your attendance is verified by the platform’s analytics, you will be emailed your attendance certificate(s). This is not an automated process, so please allow time for these to be issued. For delegates who will be viewing sessions on demand, after the live dates, certificates will not be issued until after 4 May 2021.
