The Architecture Symposium: Beyond the Building Session 2 – Emotional Connection

18 November 2021

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Participants who attend The Architecture Symposium: Beyond the Building – Session 2 will be able to:

- Understand how architecture can evoke an emotional or spiritual response.
AACA Competency: Design; Conceptual Design: 3.1
- Identify and critique design strategies that incorporate and respond sensitively to culture, place and memory.
AACA: Competency: Design; Schematic Design: 4.1
- Recall specific projects presented in this session and consider how they are challenging design thinking in the field of architecture in Australia.
AACA Competency: Design; Schematic Design: 2.6

FORMAL ASSESSMENT

- Identify two design strategies discussed in this session that demonstrate an understanding of place and culture.
- What are two challenges that can arise through a collaborative design process and how could these be resolved or managed?
- Discuss some specific considerations that go into designing architecture that must sensitively address cultural and spiritual history.
- Recall a specific speaker who challenged you to think differently about the connection between emotion, memory, culture and architecture.
- Were issues raised that you feel require further discussion or exploration?
- Describe how the material presented in this session will directly influence your design practice.

NOTE:

Attendance certificates will be issued via email from 24 January 2022, pending verification of your attendance by the platform's analytics. This is not an automated process, so please allow time for these to be issued.
