The Architecture Symposium: Reset

Friday, 28 July 2023

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Participants who attend The Architecture Symposium: Reset will be able to:

· Reflect on and assess how architects' experiences, processes and creativity can shape residential architecture outcomes.
AACA Competencies: Project Initiation and Conceptual Design; PC18, PC28.

· Compare specific examples of projects presented by practitioners and consider how they respond to the requirements of their clients.
AACA Competencies: Project Initiation and Conceptual Design; PC19, PC24.

· Speculate on future trajectories for residential projects.
AACA Competency: Project Initiation and Conceptual Design; PC25.

· Develop an expanded understanding of how residential projects can have an impact on the public realm.
AACA Competencies: Project Initiation and Conceptual Design; PC29, PC30.

FORMAL ASSESSMENT

· Compare an international and local concept, shared in this symposium, that questioned the current status quo of residential design.

· Identify two opportunities and two challenges when considering the public role of a private dwelling.

· Recall a speaker from this symposium that made you reconsider the assumptions of the architect and the agency of the occupant when designing a home. What was something you reconsidered?

· Discuss how architectural concepts of 'home' have changed and how they might evolve over the next three years.

· Describe the impact that the material raised in the symposium will have on your future practise of architecture.

· Were there any issues raised that you feel require further discussion or exploration?

NOTE: Attendance certificates will be issued via email from 1 August 2023.
