Small: Making Urban

October 2022 – January 2023

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Participants who attend Small: Making Urban (Design Speaks Collection Season Two 2022/2023) will be able to:

- Interrogate the way in which individual works of architecture contribute to the civic whole in urban environments.

AACA Competency: Project Initiation and Conceptual Design; PC27, PC29.

- Identify and assess materials and building techniques that benefit both architectural design and the environment.

AACA Competency: Project Initiation and Conceptual Design; PC33.

- Speculate on and critique design strategies and policies that impact small scale urban projects in Australia.

AACA Competency: Practice Management and Professional Conduct; PC3. Project Initiation and Conceptual Design; PC26.

- Compare specific examples of projects presented by practitioners and consider how they are challenging the field of architecture in Australia.

AACA Competency: Project Initiation and Conceptual Design; PC24, PC25.

FORMAL ASSESSMENT

- Speculate on possible design challenges for small-scale urban projects that may arise over the next ten years.

- What is an example of a small-scale design strategy discussed in this session that has had a large-scale impact on its surrounding context?

- Compare the outcomes of projects discussed in this session that involved collaboration through the design process.

- Recall a specific speaker that challenged you to think differently about the meaning of small-scale design in urban Australia.

- Describe a specific finding presented in this session that will directly influence your design practice.

- Were issues raised that you feel require further discussion or exploration?

NOTE:

Attendance certificates will be issued via email from 31 January 2023 pending verification of your attendance by the platform's analytics. This is not an automated process, so please allow time for these to be issued.
